

Arsenio Martin Campos, painter and fine arts instructor will return to Provence in June of 2025 to lead a workshop in a beautiful spot near the village of Lacoste in the Luberon Region of Provence France. The focus this year will be painting the landscape in a larger format, (10x10) and up, as well as the figure in the landscape.

The villa where we stay and the estate itself is magical, and we can do a lot of painting right there. One year when painting the sunrise, we were joined by sheep and a shepherd. You never know what can happen! Join us this year to learn new skills from this highly regarded instructor in this amazing setting.

Paint in medieval hilltop villages of the Luberon, well known from the "Year in Provence" books, and enjoy our amazing centuries old villa located between Lacoste and Bonnieux. To see this amazing place click on the button below or the Lacoste button to see more of the area where you will be staying and visiting. Experience the joie-de-vivre of a local market. We provide all transportation from the moment you land in France through your entire tour. This will be our 16th year organizing tours in this area, so relax and focus on your art. Our goal is to make it easy for you to just think about your art. We cook delicious, nutritious complete meals, provide transportation to this magical place that artists have always found inspiring. Capture the pink sunsets, the intense colors and the magical light of Provence with this masterful artist and amazing instructor!
